Barbara Shapiro
Author of The Art Forger
to Visit Hanson Public Library

SAVE THE DATE: Sunday, October 19th, 3:00 p.m.

In her highly acclaimed novel, The Art Forger, Barbara Shapiro weaves a captivating story around a Degas painting stolen during the 1990 art heist at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum. Clare Roth, a struggling Boston artist, agrees to forge one of the stolen Degas paintings in exchange for a one-woman gallery art show. Clare quickly begins to suspect the painting delivered to her is itself a forgery rather than the stolen Degas masterpiece. An intriguing plot with richly developed relationships unfolds.

According to Booklist Review, "The Art Forger is an entrancingly visual, historically rich, deliciously witty, sensuous, and smart tale of authenticity versus fakery in which Shapiro artfully turns a clever caper into a provocative meditation on what we value most."

The Art Forger is available through the SAILS Library Network. Check it out, and mark your calendars now for what will surely be an entertaining event. This free event is sponsored by the Hanson Public Library Foundation but will require preregistration.

LIBRARY PATRON GETS INVOLVED WITH CRIME

Roberta Spencer is the high bidder in the Hanson Public Library Foundation's Be a Character in a Mystery Novel Silent Auction and will find herself as a character in Hank Phillippi Ryan's next mystery novel. The Foundation Directors are eagerly waiting to see on what side of the law Roberta will be found! Thank you to all who participated in our silent auction and to our wonderful supporter Hank Phillippi Ryan who just won the Agatha Award for Best Contemporary Novel of 2013 for The Wrong Girl.
